

Anna Laskari, Architect Engineer, is a graduate of the School of Architecture of the National Technical University of Athens (NTUA) where she received her diploma in Architecture (Distinction, 2004) and her Postgraduate Degree from the Postgraduate Programme "Architecture Space Design" (Distinction, 2006). She got her MSc in "Adaptive Architecture and Computation" (Distinction, 2007) from the Bartlett School of Graduate Studies, University College London. She has worked as a Design Systems Analyst for "Foster + Partners" in London and has collaborated with several architectural practices in Athens. Currently she is working as a free-lance architect in Athens, while doing her PhD at the School of Architecture of NTUA, where she is also lecturing as a Teaching Assistant.